

AACC Master of Theology in Ecumenical Leadership Scholarship Guidelines

AACC invites application for an accredited, full time, exclusively residential Master of Theology in Ecumenical Leadership (MTEL) hosted at Mindolo Ecumenical Foundation (Kitwe, Zambia) for maximum one year.

Scholarship: AACC will provide scholarship, preferably partial, and with demonstration of high talent and financial need full scholarship.

Age limit: Strictly below 40 years (born no later than March 1983), with NO exceptions.

Basic Requirements and Application Procedure

1. Scholarship Application Form available at: www.aacc-ceta.org, www.spu.ac.ke
2. Academic certificates and testimonials and in particular Bachelor of Theology or Divinity, Religious Studies or Ecumenism and equivalent (s) from a recognized institution of higher learning.
3. An application letter,
4. Recommendation letters from church and institution,
5. Three (3) recent passport photos,
6. A copy of National Identity Card or valid Passport (Cut-off age is 40 years and below at application)

Dates: Applications to reach admission office (admissions@spu.ac.ke) and AACC Theology and Interfaith Relations (theology1@aacc-ceta.org) by 2nd of April 2024.

Notifications: Qualified candidates and beneficiaries will be notified on time before the commencing of the programme.

Note: Selection Criteria:

1. Fulfilment of the strict admission requirements of St. Paul University (including verification of certificates by the respective authorities).
2. Only those below 40 years will be considered.
3. Gender parity will be pursued, therefore female applicants are strongly encouraged to apply.
4. Regional balance to cover the AACC constituency.
5. The amount an applicant contributes to the costs will have an impact on decision to award scholarship.