STUDENT DISCLOSURE OF DISABILITY

The University has a responsibility to provide all students with equal rights to participate in education and to be treated with dignity in a supportive learning environment. The University assists students with disabilities and/or significant health conditions to complete all University learning activities within the context that the interests of all parties affected are balanced and risks minimized. All of the University's programmes and courses are available to people living with disability and/or significant health conditions, unless a reasonable accommodation cannot be made that maintains the academic, clinical and professional requirements of the Programme/Course detailed in the Programme Learning Outcomes (PLOs) or will cause unjustifiable hardship to the University.

St. Paul's University asks students to disclose relevant information about circumstances that may impact on their capacity to undertake their studies and for the purpose of making reasonable adjustments.
